

WOOD COUNTY EMERGENCY COMMUNICATIONS INC

December 5, 2000

Meeting was held at Shoney's on Garfield. All that was present at the meeting enjoyed a Christmas dinner.

The meeting was called to order at about 8:00 PM by Ken Harris, WA8LLM/Unit 251 President. There were 19 members present and 7 guests present.

Minutes from the November 7, 2000 meeting were read and approved.

The Treasurer's report was read and approved.

OLD BUSINESS

Since this was a Christmas Dinner, most of the old business was to be held off until the January 2, 2001 meeting. There was some old business discussed.

Ken, WA8LLM, said that he still needs to get the Safety Break banner since we do have the Christmas and New Years Safety Breaks.

There was a short discussion about the maps of the Amateurs in the area.

The WCEC Web Site is on hold until we can find out what Brian Harper is going to let us do. A short discussion followed.

The new ID Cards were brought to the meeting and those who had their old cards turned them in for the new ones.

Harold, KC8JHG, said that since there was no price on the MFJ Tuner, that he would sell it for 100 dollars, since that was about the price that he bought it. A check was written to Harold for that amount.

There was a discussion about the schedules for the Christmas and New Years Safety Breaks.

NEW BUSINESS

Ken, WA8LLM, talked about making picture ID Cards for the ARES members. He will be making them for four or five years.

Ryan, KC8IOG, brought up for discussion about RACES. There was a very lengthy discussion about the Radio Amateur Civil Emergency Service and the organization being a RACES group.

Two new members joined the organization, and they were: Emily Bodie, KB8YPB Unit 288, and Kevin Mills KC8LNE Unit 289.
