WOOD COUNTY BULLETIN NR 24.20
SUBJECT: SPECIAL INTEREST

DATE: May 19, 2024

Any time there is a group of people that gets together, you should try to find out what special interest they may have. Some of the special interests are hunting, fishing, cooking, auto mechanics, boating, running, etc. And, some people may even have an interest in electronics and Amateur Radio as a special interest.

If any of those in the group have a special interest, take advantage of it. Those with special interest doesn't have to take a big part in your groups activities, but they may come in handy when the time comes. If you're not interested in what their special interests are, don't put it out of you mind.

You may run into a problem, or project, where someone else's special interest may just be what you are looking for. So, the next time you are in a group just talking, listen for those who have special interests, and make a note of it. You may just need the use of a special interest they have, and may be good at.
